

Asking questions

Interviewing is a two-way street. An important part of the interview process is to ask questions to your interviewer. This not only shows that you are interested in the company and have done your research, but it also gives you an opportunity to learn more about the role or the organization.

Write a list of 2-3 questions that you'd ask in an interview for a role you are interested in. Then, visit the discussion forums[↗] to review questions your fellow learners would ask and offer feedback.
