

Exploring your possibilities

You just learned several strategies for uncovering job opportunities and requirements by using job boards.

Have you visited any job boards this week? Which ones?

Which job descriptions did you research?

What were the 2–3 most common requirements you found listed for those roles?

What concrete step can you commit to take in the next week to advance your job search?