●

Skills you bring to the table

Think back to the project management skills you just learned about: enabling decision-making, communicating and escalating, flexibility, handling ambiguity, and strong organizational skills.

- List 1-2 skills you already possess that are helpful for a project manager.

- List 1-2 skills you look forward to gaining during this course that are helpful for a project manager.

Then, visit the discussion forums ↗ and respond to at least two peers.
Participation is optional

Your Reply

Type your response here…